Directions: Put your playing pieces on START. Take turns drawing a picture card. Name the color of the picture, and move your piece to the closest space with that color word. The first to END, wins!

The board consists of a large square with a smaller square in the center. The outer square has 13 rows and 13 columns. The inner square has 7 rows and 7 columns. The center of the inner square contains a 3x3 area with the word 'END' and 'red pink' below it. The board is surrounded by a border of color words. The starting space is labeled 'START' and the ending space is labeled 'END'.
